

ManpowerGroup™

Bart van Kempen

General Counsel
Northern Europe Region

In January 2020, Bart van Kempen was named ManpowerGroup's General Counsel for the Northern Europe Region. Since January 1, 2022 Bart also took over the responsibility of the European Works Council, supporting ManpowerGroup's European Central Management to maintain and enable constructive and open social dialogue across Europe.

Bart has a law degree from the University of Amsterdam, studied at Fordham Law School in New York, earned a post graduate degree in M&A by the Free University of Amsterdam and has participated in executive programs at INSEAD.

He began his career at Dutch law firm NautaDutilh, practicing corporate, M&A and litigation in London, Amsterdam and New York. In his last role, Bart has been Group Senior Legal Counsel at an international industrial services firm, ERIKS, since 2016 and was involved in many international projects and transactions. Bart and his family reside in the Amsterdam area.

